

JOSLYN MILITARY FAMILY DAY

Saturday, November 5, 10 am–2 pm

FREE AND OPEN TO ALL!

Join us to commemorate and celebrate our community's veteran and military families and to see an exhibition of art created by local veterans working with professional artists.

Artpost Panel Presentation – 10 am (doors open at 9:45 am)
War & Peace in Art Guided Tours – 10:30 am & 1 pm
Project 22 Film Screening and Q&A – 11:15 am

A documentary raising awareness and hope regarding veterans and suicide.

Offutt Brass Performance – 1:15 pm

An ensemble of the United States
Air Force Heartland of America Band.

Enjoy art-making activities, including a collaborative project celebrating freedom, and visit with representatives from Metropolitan

Community College Military/Veterans Services, Nebraska Army National Guard Child and Youth Program, Soldiers Angels, Ted E. Bear Hollow, and UNO's Office of Military and Veteran Services. All galleries will be open; individuals and families with military ID will receive free entry to the ticketed exhibition Dirt Meridian: Photographs by Andrew Moore (children and Joslyn members free; general public adults: $10).

JOSLYN ARTPOST is a partnership between the Museum and New Century Art Guild, a non-profit organization offering professional, recreational, and therapeutic services to veterans and their families through the medium of art. Professional artists and veterans paired in the spirit of friendship and mentorship have created art for an exhibition of drawings, paintings, photography, and sculpture. The Artpost exhibition debuts at Military Family Day and will remain on view in Joslyn's community gallery (lower level, Memorial building) through December 31.
