NEW CENTURY ART GUILD

New Century Art Guild is a non-profit arts organization co-founded by veterans and artists. Our mission is to promote the career development of emerging and established artists, especially those of military veterans that seek new careers in the creative arts.

Updates

Unforgetting Iraq: In Search of Recovery –Exhibition Closed on Labor Day

NCAG's summer exhibit: Unforgetting Iraq: In Search of Recovery closed on September 1, 2014. This collection was shown for the first time in our Kimballton galleries. Now that the exhibit has left us in, it will continue to tour across the US.

Veteran artwork from "Unforgetting Iraq" exhibit

The exhibit highlighted, through art from both Iraqi and American artists, the aftermath of the Iraq war. The collection used images that spoke to our capacity

Workshops/Classes

Vets-4-vets Summer Workshops Wrap Up

Once again NCAG hosted Vets4Vets "Art Expressions" Creative Workshops in partnership with Lutheran Family Services and Bellevue University. Twelve workshops were held Wednesday evenings at Bellevue University's Veteran Support Center. Participants enjoyed a tasty dinner provided at each workshop and learned about a different art form at each meeting. One veteran said, "I was impressed by the obvious enthusiasm that the entire class of fellow veterans displayed in 'trying their hands' at their own creative abstract art pieces." Some of the highlighted topics include: Wearable "Tattoo" Designs, Drum Circle, School of Rock!, Asian Brush Painting and Calligraphy, Mandala Sand Painting and Stop-Action Animation. ■

Julefest Workshop

During the Danish Villiages' 2014 Julefest on Friday November 28th at 1:00 PM a workshop to make woven Danish Christmas tree ornaments will be held at the New Century Art Guild Gallery in Kimballton and will be taught by local crafters. ■

ARTIST HIGHLIGHT

Allison Ranniger

This summer NCAG was pleased to host Alison Ranniger, an ambitious young college art student as our summer student intern. Alison watched the galleries and visited with guests entering our exhibits. She also performed other tasks for the Guild. In return, she enjoyed use of the studio space and received supervision from NCAG Art Director, Troy Muller. She will also receive six college credits for her work with NCAG.

Artist/Intern, Allison Ranniger

Allison is a senior college student and Art Major in pursuit of her K-12 teaching licensure at Central College in Pella, IA. She is from Manning, IA where she graduated from IKM-Manning High School. At Central College she has worked in a wide range of media such as drawing, printmaking, painting, glassblowing, ceramics, sculpture, photography, and book-making. She has also participated in Central College's study abroad program in Leiden, in the Netherlands where she studied Dutch art and architecture and worked with a Dutch artist under an independent study. ■
